General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Form 1040EZ-T is used by certain individuals who do not have to file a federal individual income tax return and want to get a one-time refund of the federal excise tax they paid on long distance or bundled telephone service.

Note. If you file Form 1040EZ-T and later determine you should have filed an individual income tax return for 2006, file Form 1040X to report your income, deductions, and additional credits. Do not file Form 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ, 1040NR, 1040NR-EZ, 1040-PR, or 1040-SS.

 IRS e-file takes the guesswork out of preparing your request. It's the fastest, easiest, and most convenient way to file your request electronically. You may also be eligible to use free online commercial tax preparation software. Visit www.irs.gov/efile for details.

Deceased taxpayer. If you are requesting a refund on behalf of a taxpayer who died before 2006, you must file Form 1041 to request the refund.

If the taxpayer died after 2005, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative must file Form 1040EZ-T and sign it for that taxpayer. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased taxpayer's property. The person who files Form 1040EZ-T must enter "Deceased," the deceased taxpayer's name, and the date of death across the top of the form. If this information is not provided, the processing of the request may be delayed.

If you are filing a joint request as a surviving spouse, you only need to file Form 1040EZ-T to request the refund. Enter "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the request. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign.

If you are a court-appointed representative, file the request and attach a copy of the certificate that shows your appointment. All other filers requesting the deceased taxpayer's refund must file the request and attach Form 1310.

When To File

Foreign address. Print the information in the following order: city, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Do not abbreviate the country name.

Social Security Number (SSN)

To apply for an SSN, fill in Form SS-5 and return it to the Social Security Administration (SSA). You can get Form SS-5 online at www.socialsecurity.gov from your local SSA office, or by calling the SSA at 1-800-772-1213. Check that your SSN is entered correctly and agrees with your social security card.

If you are a nonresident or resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, enter your ITIN if you have one. If you do not have an ITIN, leave the space blank. But to get your refund, you must attach to Form 1040EZ-T a certified or notarized copy of your valid passport. If you do not have a valid passport, then you must attach certified or notarized copies of at least two of the documents listed on page 3. The documents must be current (not expired) and verify your identity (that is, contain your name that matches your name on Form 1040EZ-T). At least one document must contain your photograph and one document must verify your foreign status. Do not attach copies of expired documents. Do not attach original documents because they will not be returned to you.

- National identification card (must show photograph, name, current address, date of birth, and expiration date).

The copies must be:

- Certified by the issuing agency or official custodian of the original record, or
- Notarized by a U.S. notary public legally authorized within his or her local jurisdiction to certify that the document is a true copy of the original. To do this, the notary must see the valid, unaltered original document and verify that the copy conforms to the original. U.S. notaries public are available at U.S. embassies and consulates worldwide. Foreign notaries are acceptable as outlined by the Hague Convention.

Line 1a

If you were billed after February 28, 2003, and before August 1, 2006, for the federal telephone excise tax on long distance or bundled service, you may be able to request a refund of the tax paid. You had bundled service if your local and long distance service was provided under a plan that does not separately state the charge for local service.

You cannot request the refund if you have already received a credit or refund from your service provider. If you request the refund, you cannot ask your service provider for a credit or refund and must withdraw any request previously submitted to your provider.

You can request the standard amount or the actual amount you paid. If you believe you paid more than the standard amount, it can be to your benefit to request the actual amount. If you request the actual amount paid, you must attach Form 8913 showing the amount paid and keep records to substantiate the amount. If you were a sole proprietor, farmer, or lessor of rental real estate, you may be able to estimate your actual expenses. See Form 8913 for details.

Standard amount. The standard amount you can request depends on the number of exemptions you would be allowed to claim if you were required to file an individual income tax return for 2006. You usually can claim exemptions for yourself, your spouse, and each person you can claim as a dependent. Pub. 501 explains the exemptions you would be allowed to claim.

The standard amounts, which include both the tax paid and interest owed on that tax, are shown in the following table.

IF the number of exemptions you would claim on an individual income tax return is—	THEN the standard amount is—
1	30
2	40
3	50
4 or more	60

* Even though your standard amount is zero, you can request the actual amount paid on Form 8913.

If you request the standard amount and you later want to change it to the actual amount, you must file Form 1040X.

If you request the standard amount, you do not have to include the refund in income for any tax year.

Lines 1b through 1d

Complete lines 1b through 1d if you want us to directly deposit the refund shown on line 1a into your checking or savings account at a bank or other financial institution. Otherwise, we will send you a check.

Note. Your refund can be directly deposited to only one account. If you do not want your refund directly deposited into your account, draw a line through the boxes on lines 1b and 1d.

The IRS is not responsible for a lost refund if you enter the wrong account information. Check with your financial institution to make sure your direct deposit will be accepted and to get the correct routing and account numbers.

Line 1b. The routing number must be nine digits. The first two digits must be 01 through 12 or 21 through 32.

Otherwise, the direct deposit will be rejected and a check sent instead. See the sample check below.

Your check may state that it is payable through a financial institution different from the one at which you have your checking account. If so, do not use the routing number on that check. Instead, contact your financial institution for the correct routing number to enter on line 1b.

Line 1d. The account number can be up to 17 characters (both numbers and letters). Include hyphens but omit spaces and special symbols. Enter the number from left to right and leave any unused boxes blank. See the sample check below.

Some financial institutions will not allow a joint refund to be deposited into an individual account. If the direct deposit is rejected, a check will be sent instead. The IRS is not responsible if a financial institution rejects a direct deposit.

Third Party Designee

If you want to allow a friend, family member, return preparer, or any other person you choose to discuss your request for a refund of federal telephone excise tax with the IRS, check the "Yes" box. Also, enter the designee's name, phone number, and any five digits the designee chooses as his or her personal identification number (PIN).

If you check the "Yes" box, you, and your spouse if filing a joint request, are authorizing the IRS to call the designee to answer any questions that may arise during the processing of your request. You are also authorizing the designee to:

- Give the IRS any information that is missing from your request,
- Call the IRS for information about the processing of your request or the status of your refund,
- Receive copies of notices or transcripts related to your Form 1040EZ-T upon request, and
- Respond to certain IRS notices about math errors, offsets, and request preparation.

You are not authorizing the designee to receive any refund check, bind you to anything (including any additional tax liability), or otherwise represent you before the IRS. If you want to expand the designee's authorization, see Pub. 947.

The authorization will automatically end no later than the due date (without regard to extensions) for filing your 2007 tax return. This is April 15, 2008, for most people. If you want to revoke the authorization before it ends, see Pub. 947.

Sign Your Request

Form 1040EZ-T is not considered a valid request for refund unless you sign it. If you are filing a joint request, your spouse must also sign. If your spouse cannot sign, see Pub. 501. Be sure to enter the date. If you have someone else prepare your request, you are still responsible for its correctness.

If you are filing a joint request as surviving spouse, see Deceased taxpayer on page 1.

Keep a copy of your Form 1040EZ-T for your records.

Daytime phone number. Providing your daytime phone number may help speed the processing of your request. We may have questions about items on your request. By answering our questions over the phone, we may be able to continue processing your request without mailing you a letter. If you are filing a joint request, you can enter either your or your spouse's daytime phone number.

Electronic return signatures. Create your own personal identification number (PIN) and file a paperless request electronically or use a tax professional. If you are married filing a joint request, you and your spouse will each need to create a PIN and enter these PINs as your electronic signatures.

A PIN is any combination of five digits you choose except five zeros. If you use a PIN, there is nothing to sign and nothing to mail. For more details, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on "e-file for Individual Taxpayers."

You cannot sign your request electronically if you are a first-time filer under age 16 at the end of 2006.

If you file your request using IRS e-file, but you are not eligible or choose not to sign your request electronically, you must complete, sign, and file Form 8453 or Form 8453-OL, whichever applies.

Sign electronically and file a completely paperless request. If you use a paid preparer, ask to sign your request electronically.
